What Is Our "Friends of CoHo" Program?

Friends of CoHo are people who want to support and have social contact with our community but for various reasons are not living on site. Friends of CoHo may also be considering becoming Owner Members or Associate Members in the future and want to get to know our community.

See CoHoMembershipGuidelines for a complete list of responsibilities and rights. Basic categories are listed below. Friends of CoHo can request expansion of their responsibilities and rights by working out an agreement with the Neighbors Team.

Responsibilities of Friends of CoHo

1. Abide by CoHo agreements, bylaws, policies, and consensus decisions.
2. Become familiar with Nonviolent Communication (NVC). Friends can attend NVC class on a space-available basis.
3. Contribute 6 workshare hours per year (encouraged).
4. Pay annual base dues of $25 per household*.
5. To join meal program, make annual payment of $24-$48* per adult (based on ability to pay).

Rights of Friends of CoHo

1. Participate in some community activities.
2. Be included on CoHo Chat email list and have access to parts of internal website.
3. Join CoHo meal program (sign up for meals, volunteer for work shifts, and make additional payment to be on meal software).

Membership Steps to Become a Friend of CoHo

1. Read CoHo Vision & Values and Purpose Statement.
2. Complete Friends of CoHo Application Form and pay one-time application fee* of $25 per household.
3. Complete tasks listed on Friends of CoHo Agreement. Enter signatures and dates.
4. Submit completed agreement form, annual dues (prorated to October) and, if joining CoHo meal program, the annual payment per adult to Neighbors Team.

* For additional flexibility on application fee, annual dues and annual meal payment amounts, contact the Neighbors Team.
